More students are growing with us!

We are making changes to better serve and accommodate families.

Zone 1/Area A

Fall 2012 changes:

Jenny Lind, Olson and Sheridan schools will offer different grade levels in the 2012-2013 school year.

Jenny Lind

Currently a K-4 school → Becomes a K-5 school

Olson

Currently a 5-8 school → Becomes a 6-8 school

Sheridan

Currently a K-8 school → Becomes a K-5 school

What it means for families:

- A traditional K-5 elementary and a comprehensive middle school option will exist for students in attendance areas 1A and 1B.
- Olson will align its arts offerings with its elementary feeder schools.
- The northeast attendance area will offer 200 additional Pre-K-5 seats.
- There will be a greater focus on academic improvements in primary grades.

Zone 2/Area B

Fall 2012 changes:

MPS will reopen the Folwell school building to house the arts magnet program currently located at Ramsey.

What it means for families:

- The community will regain a school option with primary and middle grades.
- Capacity for approximately 900 K-8 students will be created in Zones 2 and 3.

Zone 3/Area C

Fall 2012 changes:

MPS will offer a new middle school at the Ramsey school building.

What it means for families:

- This will alleviate middle school crowding.
- 600-700 additional seats will be available in Zone 3 for students in grades 6-8.
- Burroughs and Lyndale students will pathway to the new middle school, beginning with grade 6 in 2012-13, grades 6-7 in 2013-14, and grades 6-8 in 2014-15.

*Students currently attending Sheridan will select middle school options based on home address.

When the snow starts to fall, listen for a call.

If school is delayed or closed, you will receive an automated telephone call. Make sure your child's contact information is up to date so you receive the call.

Delays or closings will be reported at www.mpls.k12.mn.us, on  and  and through local news outlets.

MPS rarely delays or closes school. Be sure to dress your child appropriately for the weather. If you believe that weather conditions are too dangerous for your child, contact your school to excuse the absence.
